1 Positive Personality Traits (1–20)

spontaneous • happy-go-lucky • down-to-earth • chatterbox • passionate • considerate • affection • integrity • trustworthy • charisma • assertive • conscientious • quick-witted • shrewd

Word bank: spontaneous, happy-go-lucky, down-to-earth, chatterbox, passionate, considerate, affection, integrity, trustworthy, charisma, assertive, conscientious, quick-witted, shrewd

1. She's always up for an adventure — completely _____, never needing to plan ahead.
2. Despite his fame, he remained wonderfully _____ and never let success change him.
3. My sister is a real _____ — she can talk for hours without pausing.
4. He's _____ about music and spends every free hour practising the guitar.
5. She's incredibly _____ — she always checks how everyone else is feeling before making plans.
6. Their new manager has real _____; the whole team seems drawn to her energy.
7. You need to be _____ in negotiations, or people will walk all over you.
8. He's famous for his _____ — he's never once broken a promise.
9. A good friend is one you find _____ enough to share your secrets with.
10. She's _____ about her work, double-checking every report before submitting it.
11. He's remarkably _____ — he always has a clever comeback ready.
12. My grandmother was _____ when it came to business, spotting opportunities others missed.
13. Even after losing his job, he stayed _____, certain something better would come along.
14. She showed real _____ for the stray cat, feeding it every day.
15. Being _____ helps leaders connect with their teams on a personal level.
16. He's incredibly _____ — last week he booked a flight to Rome on a whim.
17. A _____ employee is worth more to a company than a brilliant but dishonest one.
18. She's always been _____ of other people's feelings, even as a child.
19. His _____ made him a natural choice for the leadership role.
20. Being _____ doesn't mean being aggressive — it means expressing your needs clearly.

LIVEWORKSHEETS