

Practice test Unit 9 - Listening 32 (page 83)

Presenter Listen and look at the picture. There is one example.

Boy This is an interesting picture. The family lives(1) It's an interesting place to live - but my Mum wouldn't like it very much! Look there are stones on the ground!

Woman Yes, I can see. But would you like to colour the picture for me, Oliver?

Boy Yes please! Look! That (2) is empty, but he's going to have his dinner soon, isn't he? Shall I colour his plate?

Woman Yes. Can you colour it yellow?

Boy OK, I'm doing that now.

Woman That's very good!

Boy That's his wife there, the woman who's (3) And that's their baby. The baby's got a very strange toy, hasn't he?

Woman Yes -- but can you see the bowls?

Boy Well, baby's got a bowl.

Woman Yes, but there are some bowls (4)..... up there too.

Boy Oh yes. Shall I colour them?

Woman Well, can you colour the one between (5)
.....? Colour it pink, please.

Boy No problem!

Boy Look, the girl's (7)..... They're huge and frightening, aren't they? Oh look - she's written 'animals' on the wall.

Woman Yes ... can you write something above that word for me, please?

Boy OK ... In a minute!

Woman Er ... no ... now please Oliver!

Boy Oh ... all right then. What shall I write?

Woman Write the word 'enormous'.

Boy But that's a very long word!

Woman Ok, write 'wild' for me instead, then.

Boy OK - I can do that!

Woman That's great. Well done!

Boy Now can I colour something else please?

Woman: Yes, if you want. What would you like to colour?

Boy Well, those birds are very unusual.

Woman Yes, they are, aren't they? Can you see the bird (8)
.....to the cave?

Boy Yes, shall I colour that one?

Woman Well, colour its (9).....

Boy Right, I'm doing that now!

Boy Shall I write something else now?

Woman Yes please. Can you see the words 'our home'?

Boy No, where?

Woman Look ... there – (10).....

Boy Oh yes, I can see them.

Woman Do you? Well, can you write a word for me, between those two words?

Boy Yes ... I'll write 'strange', I think.

Woman No, don't write that, write the word 'little'.

Boy Can you help me?

Woman No, it's an easy word Oliver. You can write it by yourself.

Boy It's night time, isn't it? In the picture, I mean.

Woman How do you know?

Boy Well, there's (11) in the sky.

Woman Oh yes, and there three stars.

Boy Shall I colour them?

Woman Well, just colour (12)..... of them.

Boy There ... I've done that. It's an excellent picture now. I'm very pleased with it!

Woman Yes, it's great Oliver!
