Tom and his family are in the countryside today. The weather is warm and sunny. There is a river next to a big field. Some cows are eating the grass, and a farmer is driving a tractor in the field. Tom is sitting on a rock by the river. He is fishing with his dad. His sister, Emma, is riding her bike along a path near the trees. Behind the field, there is a large forest with many green leaves on the trees. A small leaf is falling to the ground. Birds are flying over the mountains, and a duck is swimming in the lake.
