School and Healthy Habits

Emma is a university student. She has many responsibilities during the week. Every morning, she has to wake up at 6:00 a.m. because her first class starts at 7:30. She has to bring her books, notebooks, and student ID every day. At the university, students must arrive on time because late students cannot enter the classroom. They mustn't use their phones during exams or talk while the teacher is explaining the lesson.

Emma wants to be healthier, so she knows she should eat more fruit and vegetables instead of fast food. She also thinks she ought to exercise at least three times a week because it helps her feel more energetic. On weekends, she doesn't have to wake up early, so she usually sleeps a little longer. However, she still studies because she wants to get good grades. Emma believes that following the rules and having healthy habits are both important for success.
