

ชื่อ-นามสกุล : _____ ชั้นเรียน : _____

1. Find the URLs of the online dictionaries on Google. Complete the table.

ONLINE DICTIONARIES	UNIFORM RESOURCE LOCATORS (URLS)
a. Cambridge	_____
b. Collins	_____
c. Longman	_____
d. Macmillan	_____
e. Merriam-Webster	_____
f. Oxford	_____

EXERCISE 2: Analyze the terms and write the derivation or how the terms are formed in the blanks. Match the terms with the meanings.

NEW TERMS	DERIVATIONS	MEANINGS
1. ___ awareable	_____	a. collection, analysis, and use of data from websites
2. ___ BookTuber	_____	b. computer device worn on the body for monitoring and decreasing stress
3. ___ cyberloafing	_____	c. deleting a sent email
4. ___ cybersickness	_____	d. fame through posting selfies to Instagram
5. ___ datafication	_____	e. Instagram account with limited access
6. ___ finsta	_____	f. nausea caused by looking at the screens photos of electronic devices
7. ___ instafamous	_____	g. shoe photos posted on social media sites
8. ___ linkster	_____	h. someone who posts a book review video on YouTube
9. ___ manosphere	_____	i. spending working hours on the Internet that are not work-related
10. ___ shoefie	_____	j. someone's life linked into technology since birth after 2002
11. ___ unsend	_____	k. TV programs on websites only
12. ___ webisode	_____	l. websites on man-related issues

Many new terminologies were generated from social media sites such as:

- » Facebook
- » Instagram
- » LinkedIn
- » Myspace
- » Skype
- » Twitter
- » WhatsApp

ชื่อ-นามสกุล : _____ ชั้นเรียน : _____

DIALOGUE 1

- A: Do you understand what I _____?
- B: Sorry, I don't understand what you're _____ about. Could you please _____ the word "awareable"?
- A: It's spelt A-W-A-R-E-A-B-L-E, a wareable.
- B: Could you _____ that, please?
- A: Certainly. It _____ a computer device worn on the body for monitoring and decreasing stress.
- B: Does it derive from combination of the words "aware" and "able"?
- A: Yes, it does.
- B: I _____ what you're saying. Thanks.

DIALOGUE 2

- A: Do you _____ what I'm saying?
- B: I'm not _____ I get your _____. Can you please _____ the word "BookTuber"?
- A: It's B-O-O-K-T-U-B-E-R, BookTuber.
- B: What do you _____ by that word?
- A: It _____ to someone who posts a book review video on YouTube.
- B: I _____ it. It derives from "book" and "YouTuber". Right?
- A: That's _____.
- B: _____ you very much.

- A: Do you understand what I'm saying?
- B: I'm sorry I don't understand. Can you spell the word "zoogler", please?
- A: It's Z-O-O-G-L-E-R, zoogler.
- B: What do you mean by that word?
- A: It refers to the Google worker in Zurich.
- B: Is it the combination of the words "Zurich" and "Google"?
- A: That's right!
- B: I understand what you're saying. Thanks.
- A: It's my great pleasure.

1. TERM:

2. PARTS OF SPEECH:

3. DERIVATION:

4. DEFINITION:
