

●●● Are You a City smart?

A. VOCABULARY: city features

Put the words in the correct places in the chart.

bridge clinic embassy ferry fire station highway hostel monument parking lot sidewalk sculpture tunnel

Buildings where people work	Things related to transportation	Other

B. GRAMMAR: articles

Match each sentence with the correct rule.

- | | |
|---------------------------------|--|
| 1 He's at the airport. _____ | a Don't use an article when you talk about something in general. |
| 2 I don't like milk. _____ | b Use a/an to talk about singular nouns. |
| 3 My brother is a doctor. _____ | c Use the with something your listener already knows about. |

Circle a, an, the, or Ø (no article).

- We saw a / an / the / Ø beautiful monument today. I don't know what it's called.
- I think a / an / the / Ø Tokyo is the most exciting city in the world.
- I'm looking for a / an / the / Ø apartment downtown.
- We're not far from a / an / the / Ø hotel. You can go get a jacket from your room.
- Close a / an / the / Ø door. It's cold.
- A / An / The / Ø last train leaves at midnight.
- A / An / The / Ø best shops are on a / an / the / Ø Jones Street.
- Have you ever been to a / an / the / Ø Kings Park in a / an / the / Ø Australia?

Complete each question with a noun or noun phrase in the box and the correct article (or no article).

bridges clinic hostels monuments most beautiful sculpture parking lot

- What is _____ in your city? Where is it? Who is the artist?
- If you're sick, is there _____ nearby that you can go to?
- Are there any _____ or cheap hotels in your city where travelers can stay?
- Are there any _____ in town? Are they for driving on or for walking on?
- Where can we leave our car? Is there _____ by the movie theater?
- Does your city have any _____ or other landmarks? What are they for?