

At the doctor's

1. Complete the sentences.

1. Tom's nose is _____. Give him a handkerchief. (b _____ ing)
2. You're lucky. Your leg isn't _____. (b _____)
3. I've got a chest _____. I must stay in bed. (i _____)
4. You've had a _____ for a week. You must see a doctor. (t _____)
5. I hit my finger with a hammer and it is _____. (s _____)
6. Your eye is _____. Put some drops in it. (r _____)
7. My back _____. I picked up a heavy box. (h _____ s)
8. My hand is _____. Can I put some cream on it? (i _____)

2. Match the halves of the expressions.

a) What seems to be	1) in your eye.
b) How long has it	2) the problem?
c) Can you	3) a prescription
d) I'll give you	4) all right in 3 or 4 days.
e) Put the drops	5) been like this?
f) Take one tablet	6) see me.
g) It should be	7) twice a day.
h) Come back and	8) move it?

3. Complete the dialogue

Doctor Now, Joe. What seems to be the problem?

Joe My knee is very (1) _____, Dr Evans.

Doctor Yes, it's very swollen. How long (2) _____ like this?

Joe I fell when I was playing basketball this morning. I can't stand because it (3) _____ so much.

Doctor It (4) _____ be broken so we'll have to do an X-ray.

(Later)

Doctor Well, it isn't broken, Joe. But you (5) _____ it badly. I'm going to put a(n) (6) _____ on it.

Joe Can I have something for the pain, Dr Evans?

Doctor Yes, I'll give you some tablets (7) _____ will calm the pain. You (8) _____ take them for three days and rest your leg.

Joe When can I play basketball again?

Doctor I'm afraid you can't do sport for a month.