WILL OR GOING TO?
FRIENDSHIP VOCABULARY

Complete each sentence with will or going to, plus the verb in brackets.

1. Anna bought a birthday present yesterday. She _____ it to her best friend tomorrow. (give)
2. "Don't worry. I _____ you with your homework," said Tom. (help)
3. Look at those two friends! They _____ because they are shouting at each other. (argue)
4. We already have tickets, so we _____ to the cinema together on Saturday. (go)
5. I think my best friend _____ this book. She loves adventure stories. (love)
6. Sarah is carrying lots of bags. I _____ one for you! (carry)
7. Look at those dark clouds. It _____ during our picnic with friends. (rain)
8. Ben has planned everything. He _____ a surprise party for his best friend next weekend. (have)
9. "I promise I _____ your secret." (not tell)
10. Emma studies very hard. I think she _____ the English test. (pass)
11. We bought snacks yesterday. We _____ a movie night tonight. (have)
12. "The phone is ringing!" "I _____ it." (answer)
13. My friends are wearing sports clothes. They _____ football after school. (play)
14. I think Lucy _____ many new friends at her new school. (make)
15. Look! Jack forgot his umbrella. He _____ wet. (get)
16. My cousin decided yesterday that she _____ more time with her friends this summer. (spend)
17. "Thanks for inviting me!" "You're welcome! I _____ you there at six." (see)
18. Our friendship is very strong. I know we _____ always _____ friends. (be)
19. Kate is packing her backpack now. She _____ camping with her classmates this weekend. (go)
20. "Don't be afraid. Everything _____ OK." (be)

LIVEWORKSHEETS