

Reading Comprehension

My First Day At School

Emily is twelve years old. Today is her first day at Green Valley School. She feels nervous because she does not know anyone. She arrives at school at 7:00 a.m. with her new backpack and her school timetable.

At the entrance, a friendly teacher smiles and says, "Welcome to Green Valley School!" Emily feels a little better.

In the classroom, she meets her classmates. They introduce themselves and invite her to sit with them. Her English teacher asks everyone to talk about their favorite hobby. Emily says she loves reading books and drawing pictures.

During the break, two girls invite Emily to the library. They show her many interesting books and explain how to borrow them. Emily is happy because she loves reading.

At the end of the day, Emily goes home with a smile. She tells her parents that she has new friends and that she cannot wait to go back to school tomorrow.
