- b they had lost their map.
- c they were extremely tired.

3 The women couldn't go back down the mountain because

- a they were so cold.
- b they didn't know the way.
- c it was difficult to see.

4 They stayed alive on the mountain

- a because they called for help.
- b by entering illegally into a shop.
- c because there was tea in the hut.

5 They spent the night

- a fixing the door.
- b sleeping in a very small space.
- c drinking tea.

6 They felt that damaging the hut

- a was a crime and they would be caught.
- b was wrong but necessary.
- c kept them warm and cosy.

- Listen again and decide if the statements are true (T) or false (F).

1 The woman prefers holidays in October because they are less expensive then.

2 She and her friend were surprised by the weather at the top of the mountain.

3 She had a thin jacket and her friend had a thin jumper.

4 They immediately realised that their lives were in danger.

5 They both realised that the hut would be open the next morning.

6 It was unusual for Amy to behave the way she did on the mountain.
