

4 Complete the profile with the present simple form of the verbs.

Rhianna Brown

Hobby: Dancing

I 1) dance (dance) a lot in my free time. I
 2) (go) to dance lessons every week – my mother 3) (teach) the class. My two sisters also 4) (have) dance lessons, but my older brother 5) (not like) dancing. His hobby 6) (be) skateboarding. He's really good and he always 7) (win) competitions.
 I 8) (not have) a favourite style of dance.
 My friends at school 9) (not like) dancing either, they 10) (play) computer games in their free time.

Time expressions

GRAMMARZONE

Adverbs of frequency

adverbs of frequency with the present simple to say how often something happens

- before main verbs
Sarah often dances in the school playground.
- after be
They are sometimes late for lessons.
- after auxiliary verbs
We've never seen this TV programme.
- after modal verbs
You should always listen carefully.

Time phrases

time phrases with the present simple say how often something happens

- at the beginning of a sentence
On Wednesdays I play hockey.
- at the end of a sentence
She sings every day.

5 Complete the email with these words.

always every every week never normally often sometimes

Email

File Edit View Go Message Tools Help

Get Mail Write Address Book Back Forward Subject or Sender

1 2 3 Subject

Hi,

My hobby is singing. 1) Every Saturday I have singing lessons at my local music school. The lessons are great – I 2) miss one! I really like my teacher, Miss Wright. She is 3) friendly and helpful. There are 4) two other girls in the class. They don't miss classes either.

5) we take part in competitions, but we don't 6) win! We practise

7) I have a lot of good friends in my music school. What's your hobby?

Louise

Done Unread: 0 / Total: 0

6 Put the time phrases in the correct place in the sentences.

- often
- I play football at school. (often)
 - Do you play chess? (in the evenings)
 - Dad washes his car. (at the weekend)
 - He goes shopping. (on Saturdays)
 - Rosie and Katie practice their dance. (every day)
 - Paul can't come. (not now)