

Practice using must and should

A Listen and read the conversation. Identify one rule and one piece of advice. 🎧 3-29

SCENE 1

Officer: May I see your license and registration, sir?

Driver: Of course, Officer. Here they are. What's the problem?

SCENE 2

Officer: Did you know that your left taillight is broken?

Driver: No, I didn't.

Officer: You must not drive with a broken taillight.

SCENE 3

Officer: You should check your tires too. This one looks flat.

Driver: Yes. I'll take care of it right away.

Officer: Thank you, sir. Have a good day.

B Listen and mark the answers to the questions. 🎧 3-30

1. ☐ a. Yes, she did. ☐ b. No, she didn't.
2. ☐ a. Yes, he did. ☐ b. No, he didn't.
3. ☐ a. Yes, she did. ☐ b. No, she didn't.
4. ☐ a. Yes, he did. ☐ b. No, he didn't.

C Think about the grammar. Read the rules and advice in the chart.

Do you use should for rules or for advice?

| Rules (It's the law!)                        | Advice (It's a good idea.)                         |
|----------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------|
| You must wear a seat belt.            | You should check your car engine regularly. |
| You must not drink alcohol and drive. | You should not play loud music in your car. |

D Work with a partner. Is it the law? Complete the sentences.

In the blanks, type: must must not should should not
