Wedding in England.

Example In England, a wedding is a special event where two people, the bride and groom, promise to spend their lives together. It's a day filled with 1 happiness, celebrations _____ traditions.

First, the wedding ceremony takes place in a church or 2 a registry office. The bride usually _____ a beautiful white dress, and the groom a smart suit. They exchange wedding rings to symbolize their love.

During the ceremony, the bride often has bridesmaids, who are her closest friends or family members, and the groom has groomsmen. They stand by the bride and 3 groom's side to support _____.

After the wedding ceremony, there is a wedding reception, a big party with food, music, and dancing.

4 _____ guests come to celebrate with the newlyweds. It's a happy moment for everyone.

One important tradition is the tossing of the bouquet. The bride stands with her back to a group of single 5 women, then tosses _____ bouquet over her shoulder. It's believed that the woman who catches it will be the next to get married.
