

Decide whether to use the infinitive with or without to.

- I want  you.
- You must  up.
- They learn .
- I can  along some packages of crisps.
- Do you  English?

Fill in the correct form of the verbs (infinitive with/without to).

- I will (go)  now.
- You should (do)  your homework.
- She has (write)  a letter.
- Amelie may (come)  to our party.
- I'd like (watch)  the film.

Exercises: with or without TO?

-  You should  a coat.
-  I would like  a pet.
-  You must  your room
-  People work  money.
-  It's going  soon.
-  May I  the window?
-  Paul will  in Egypt.
-  They need  that.
-  Shall we  home?

We have  by bus.