

Ensino de Língua para fins específicos

Professor Neuda Lago PhD

Passive voice - Activities

I. Transform these sentences into the passive voice with BY.

1. The Council adopted today an in-depth reform of the aid scheme to support teachers' development.
2. The Government needs to reverse the catastrophic decline in part-time students due to tuition fees.
3. WHO, UN Foundation and partners launch the first-of-its-kind COVID-19 Solidarity Response Fund.
4. The Brazilian government could end postgrad and postdoc funding amid political crisis.

II. Complete these sentences in the passive voice using the transformation in brackets. Don't use BY.

1. Technology _____ as a positive force for teacher development. (use – could)
2. The name of the new Director of the Department of Education _____ when the lights went out. (announce – past continuous)
3. Peer teaching _____ in India some 2500 years ago. (know – simple past)