

Roll No: _____

Name: _____

AND: connects same ideas. She bought apples and bananas for the family.

BUT: connects opposite ideas. She's very hardworking but no very imaginative.

OR: connects different options. Is it Tuesday or Wednesday today?

BECAUSE: connects the result of something with its reason. I can't play because I'm tired.

SO: connects a reason with its result. My knee started hurting, so I stopped running.

Ex.01 Complete the sentences with because / so.

- My uncle's car was very old he sold it.
- I ate lots of candy floss I like them very much.
- I don't go out at night it's not safe.

Ex.02 Choose the but / and to complete the sentences.

- I'm hungry but / and I don't have any money to buy lunch.
- Fruits tastes good and / but it's healthy for your body.
- It's a nice gift and / but I don't like it.

Ex.01: Use -ack, -ick, -ock to fill in the blanks.

Sam will p_____ up the l_____, and quickly run around the bl_____.

Ex.02: Join the picture to its word family.

