Adventurer and humanitarian Shannon Galpin wanted to make people _____ of what life is like in Afghanistan. She organised an exhibition of photographs called Streets of Afghanistan. The photographs _____ the people of Afghanistan in their daily lives and _____ many different _____, from shopping and playing sports, to homelessness and poverty. The exhibition first opened in Denver, Colorado, in the United States. Shannon later decided to take the photographs to Afghanistan. She put up huge prints of the photographs in _____ in Afghanistan, such as the streets or the zoo. There, they were _____ for everyone to look at. People stopped to _____ them as they walked through the streets.
