READING AND USE OF ENGLISH.

READING.

My job profile . By Mario Contadini

I'm a chef on a cruise ship. A cruise ship is a very big boat. People go on holiday on the ship.

The ship goes to different countries, so I travel a lot with my job – I'm not at home very often! I go to places like Italy, Canada and Mexico every year.

My job isn't easy. We usually have about 6,000 people on the ship – 4,000 people on holiday and 2,000 workers. We make a lot of food every day! We make breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea and dinner for the people on the ship. In the morning, I usually get up early, at six o'clock. I have a shower and get dressed, and then I go to the restaurant. I make some coffee and eat breakfast. Then I start work!

We have 300 chefs on the ship. Some chefs make bread and cakes, some chefs prepare fruit, vegetables and salads and some chefs just make food from one country, for example, Japanese food. All the chefs are good at their job and they're friendly, too! When you work on a cruise ship, you know people from a lot of different countries. The job isn't boring, because all the workers are nice.

The ship goes to a lot of interesting towns and cities. When you start this job, you want to leave the ship and see these places. The young chefs always want to eat some food from the towns and cities, too! I don't do that – I don't leave the ship. After work, I go to my room and read a book or I go to bed. I'm a father and sometimes I'm sad, because I don't see my family when I'm on the ship. But I think I have a good job!

Read the text. Are the sentences true (T), false (F), or is there not enough information to decide (N)? Write T, F or N.
