

126. The school children attend should not adversely influence their choices in life.

- A. negatively B. quickly C. admittedly D. considerably

127. Preliminary findings show that those who constantly check their phones are vulnerable to depression.

- A. Final B. Disappointing
C. Interesting D. Initial

128. They conducted a comprehensive study on the effects of urbanisation on air quality.

- A. understandable B. secret
C. thorough D. influential

129. The journey would be tedious, so it's a good idea to carpool to the venue.

- A. exciting B. boring C. harmful D. inspired

130. After walking to the nearest petrol station, he became weary.

- A. depressed B. tired
C. disappointed D. detrimental

131. Her ridiculous comments provoked an outburst of anger from the boss.

- A. compliments B. criticism
C. remarks D. character

132. The transfer of responsibility to our department means a heavier workload.

- A. transplant B. removal
C. conversation D. shifting

133. The teacher taught his students by conventional methods.

- A. unique B. modern C. traditional D. extraordinary

134. We knew that, for the children's sake, we had to prevent our relationship from deteriorating any further.

- A. improving B. degrading C. purifying D. elevating