

ID 3 UNIT 3 WORKBOOK 3.2

was your last vacation as much as you'd hoped?

1 Chris is in Mumbai to meet his fiancée's family. He's arranged to meet a friend, Roni, first. Read Roni's texts and mark a–f True (T), False (F), or not mentioned (N).

- a By the time Roni got to the hotel, Chris had gone.
- b Chris sent five texts to Roni.
- c Roni had told Chris to turn his phone off while visiting his future in-laws.
- d Chris told Roni that he had turned his phone off.
- e Indian men don't greet other men with kisses.
- f You're not supposed to shake hands with the servants.

Finally made it to the hotel, but you'd left. Sorry! Good luck with your in-laws. R
Sent 17:31

Remember not to kiss your girlfriend in front of her parents. Terrible manners in India! R
Sent 17:35

Almost forgot. Hug her brothers if you want to, but don't kiss them on the cheek, OK? R
Sent 17:42

One more: don't greet servants as you do with the family. Just nod. Can u reply, pls? R
Sent 17:45

Aha! Can't see my texts 'cause u turned off your cell phone as I told you. ☹ R
Sent 18:36

Complete Chris' email to his family with the past perfect form of these verbs.

break

(not) hug

kiss

make mistake

send

shake

tell

Dear Mom and Dad,

Greetings from a really rainy Mumbai—I thought it'd be hot and dry. Last night I met Diya's parents. After a tense couple of hours I got back to the hotel, turned my cell phone back on (Roni ^a _____ me to switch it off), and found several text messages with advice from Roni. Too late! He ^b _____ those messages while my phone was off. As I read them I realized I ^c _____ so many terrible mistakes at Diya's. To begin with, I had kissed her in front of her parents, apparently a big no-no in India. To make matters worse, I ^d _____ her brothers, too — males usually don't. Worse still, I ^e _____ them as you're supposed to. Worst of all, I ^f _____ one of the servants for a member of the family and ^g _____ hands with her. In India, you greet people from different social backgrounds differently. In other words, I discovered I ^h _____ practically every cultural rule in the book. I just hope they'll give me another chance. Wish me luck! I'll write again soon. Hope Dad's feeling a little better now.

Love,

Chris xx

- a Did you know the Romans had spoken Latin?
- b After we had arrived home, we made some sandwiches.
- c By the time we got home, the TV show finished.
- d When I had lunch, I had a short nap.
- e We had bought our car five years ago.

4 Choose the correct past participle.

- a Chris had been / gone by the time Roni arrived.
- b Chris had never been / gone to Mumbai before.
- c Roni had been / gone to India several times.
- d By the time Chris saw Roni's messages, he'd already been / gone to his in-laws'.

5 3.3 Watch / Listen to the host and underline the word(s) with the strongest stress in a–f. The number of stressed words is in parentheses.

a Hi, this is your travel host. (4) b I'd like to show you the top ten attractions of Madrid, Spain. (8) c Number ten, Plaza de Cibeles. Madrid is known for many beautiful squares like this one. (9) d The Cibeles fountain is an important symbol of this city. (5)

e Number nine. Almudena Cathedral. It took more than a hundred years to complete its construction in 1993.
(8)

f The original site was occupied by Madrid's first mosque. (6)

 LIVEWORKSHEETS

6 3.4 Listen and copy the sentence stress.

Copy in your workbook and send to your teacher through whatsapp or e-mail

- 7  Make it personal Write a short review of a hotel, restaurant, or attraction you know well. Share it with a friend. Do they agree?

Copy in your workbook and send to your teacher through whatsapp or e-mail