

233. He refused to answer _____ the grounds that the question violated his rights to privacy.

- A. of B. on C. in D. around

234. I don't mind being woken up once or twice in the middle of the night by my flat mate so long as she doesn't make a habit _____ it.

- A. for B. on C. with D. of

235. The manager is very experienced _____ marketing.

- A. in B. of C. from D. at

236. I'm afraid I wasn't attending _____ what was being said so my mind went blank when I was asked to give my opinion.

- A. on B. in C. to D. at

237. At the beginning of term the semester, students are supplied _____ a list of books that they are expected to read.

- A. to B. with C. from D. at

238. A new line can be indented at various levels according _____ the intention of the author of the program.

- A. on B. in C. to D. at

239. Eventually you will get used _____ the smells of the factory.

- A. in B. on C. for D. to

240. Unfortunately the report was prepared _____ haste and contained several inaccuracies.

- A. in B. of C. with D. out

241. The people of this country will continue in their struggle _____ independence.

- A. in B. at C. for D. on

242. Gas-fired power stations will substitute _____ less efficient coal-fired equipment

- A. of B. above
C. in D. for