

497. I hope things will start to look _____ this year.

- A. for B. at C. in D. up

498. This window looks _____ onto the lake.

- A. about B. out C. of D. in

499. He fainted and crumpled _____ a heap on the floor

- A. into B. upon C. out D. through

500. When the teacher walked in, the children's voices fell _____ a whisper.

- A. over B. of C. to D. on

501. The president fell _____ power during the military coup.

- A. for B. at C. in D. from

502. The blackmailers exacted a total of $100,000 _____ their victims.

- A. about B. from C. of D. in

503. If I'm not sure how to spell a word, I refer _____ a dictionary.

- A. to B. upon C. out D. through

504. She agreed to his request _____ demur.

- A. over B. of C. without D. on

505. The government's economic policy has been denounced _____ all sides.

- A. for B. at C. in D. on

506. The bus for Dallas departs _____ the Greyhound-Trailways Terminal.

- A. about B. from C. of D. in

507. We must be quite clear in our minds what we mean when we descant _____ the need for economy.

- A. over B. of C. to D. on

508. The soldiers have been ordered to desist _____ firing their guns.

- A. to B. from C. out D. through

509. Their fourth year without rain drove many farmers _____ despair.

- A. over B. of C. to D. on

