My name is Cathy and I am eighteen years old. Last summer I went to Laos to do some volunteer work. I volunteered in an orphanage with about 100 children. I worked with the twenty-five babies and the younger children.

I love working in the baby rooms of the orphanage. At first, it was really hard to see so many babies without a home. But after some time, I loved the babies like they were my own. I became especially closer to one of the babies. Her name was Anna. She was three months.

The younger children were adorable. They all just wanted our attention and care. I also gave my special care to a nine-year-old girl. The first day I met her, she seemed very sad, and didn't play with the other children. By the end of my time there, she was laughing and smiling.

During my time at the orphanage, I fed babies and played with them and loved every minute of the time I was there. All the children were so sad when I left but I do not think they were as sad as me. This experience changed my life. It was a meaningful and unforgettable summer.

29. Why did Cathy decide to travel to Laos during her summer holiday?

- A. Because she wanted to spend time with her relatives.
- B. Because she was sent there by her school.
