READING COMPREHENSION

READING TEXT: THE MARTINEZ FAMILY BUSINESS

Gloria Martinez is thirty-five years old and lives in a big house in Manchester with her family. Gloria is a manager at an office. Her husband's name is Carlos, and he is forty years old. Carlos is a doctor at a local hospital. They have two children: a son named Mateo, who is fourteen years old, and a daughter named Sofia, who is twelve years old. Mateo and Sofia are students at Manchester High School.

The family also has a small antique shop in the city center. Gloria's parents, Miguel and Rosa, work in the shop. Miguel is sixty-eight years old, and Rosa is sixty-five. In the shop, they sell old items like clocks, books, and chairs. A small table costs £45, and an old German clock is £120. Customers can pay by cash or by card.

Gloria's brother, Javier, is a football player, but he doesn't live in Manchester. He lives in London with his wife, Julia, and their baby son. Javier often visits his family on weekends.
