

45. There was a great hue and cry over the government's decision to demolish the ancient school.

- A. expression
- B. satisfaction
- C. consolation
- D. disapproval

46. Even after he won the first prize in the competition, he kept his feet on the ground.

- A. was happy
- B. was tired
- C. stayed humble
- D. was crazy

47. My younger sister has been walking on air all day since she knew that she was admitted to one of the most elite universities in the UK.

- A. pleased
- B. dissatisfied
- C. wary
- D. mistreated

48. She said that she had read more than 150 books in just one month, but it sounded like a tall story to me.

- A. a story which is very long
- B. a story which is really interesting
- C. a story which is hard to believe
- D. a story which is easily understood

49. She's a reliable and honest woman, so it would be out of character of her to lie.

- A. difficult
- B. not typical
- C. unkind
- D. not stable

50. My grandmother's getting on a bit; she becomes very forgetful.

- A. getting lazy
- B. feeling tired
- C. becoming interested
- D. getting old

51. Although I have known him since I was knee-high to a grasshopper, I couldn't remember how many people there are in his family.

- A. strong
- B. old
- C. small
- D. weak

52. His uncle is no spring chicken anymore, so it's not really appropriate to invite him to my Halloween party.

- A. young
- B. old
- C. tall
- D. short

