

92. Linda was on cloud nine when she was offered a position at a multinational company.

- A. bitterly disappointed
- B. deeply depressed
- C. extremely happy
- D. desperately worried

93. When I told my mother that I had quit the job, she flipped her lid.

- A. remained calm
- B. kept confident
- C. became angry
- D. felt happy

94. They've been working hard in the last 20 years, and now they're living high off the hog.

- A. making ends meet
- B. living with lots of money
- C. donating money to poor people
- D. living in slumps

95. The newly launched app from the company is in a different league altogether.

- A. much poorer
- B. much dirtier
- C. much more expensive
- D. much better

96. My brother's a night owl, and our parents often say that staying up too late can do harm to his health.

- A. a person who likes to sleep early
- B. a person who often drinks alcohol at night
- C. a person who prefers to stay awake late at night
- D. a person who usually drinks coffee to remain awake at night

97. They've been together through thick and thin, and nothing can break their bond.

- A. through good and bad times
- B. in excitement
- C. with regrets
- D. with the support of strangers

