

158. He popped the _____ on my 22nd birthday. I was extremely happy.

- A. question B. problem C. issue D. matter

159. David really _____ a dash in his new suit at the annual conference. I couldn't take my eyes off him.

- A. cut B. chop C. shave D. slice

160. Tony _____ a sight when I met him this morning. He must have forgotten to look at himself in the mirror.

- A. saw B. glanced C. looked D. stared

161. He's a _____ partner. He's done many things, but he owns half of the enterprise.

- A. lying B. watching C. standing D. sleeping

162. She worked as an intern at a local company, but she thought that it would be a great way to get her _____ in the door at that company.

- A. arm B. nose C. neck D. foot

163. During the Covid-19 pandemic, I had an opportunity to work from home and spend quality time with my family. It's such a cushy _____.

- A. number B. data C. figure D. statistic

164. The aviation industry will go _____ up if the Covid-19 pandemic starts to take hold.

- A. stomach B. belly C. waist D. liver

165. Most companies in the region are considering shutting up _____ due to the complicated development of the Covid-19 pandemic.

- A. store B. house C. school D. shop

166. Preliminary findings show that there may be a _____ on the horizon if the government refuses to take action.

- A. star B. thunder C. cloud D. sky

167. Thomas was a big _____ in a small pond; he was more knowledgeable and experienced than anyone else in the office.

- A. crab B. fish C. snail D. duck