

209. Her father is of the old school who believes that women should always stay at home and take care of their children.

- A. modern
- B. recalled
- C. ignorant
- D. primitive

210. She's been trying to pass the driving test, but she never achieves her dream. Now she's ready to throw in the towel.

- A. admit her defeat
- B. give in to her ideas
- C. refuse to give up
- D. abandon a task

211. Lucy really wants the first prize, so she's been putting her heart and soul into that project.

- A. trying very hard to do
- B. making an effort to finish
- C. attempting to win
- D. unwilling to do

212. Don't worry! She's going to know the ropes there. I mean she's an ability to adapt to a new environment well.

- A. become excited
- B. go insane
- C. feel sick
- D. be unfamiliar

213. I'm not going to play second fiddle to John when I have more experience than him.

- A. be friendly to
- B. be hostile to
- C. be treated as less important than
- D. have a more important position than

214. He's become forgetful in recent years, and the board of directors decided that it's time to put him out to pasture.

- A. ask him to stay longer with the company
- B. force him to leave the job
- C. stop him from getting a promotion
- D. ask him to pay for his own business expenses

