

29/ Shopping

Words you need...

a chocolate bar

a can

a carton

a packet (UK)/
a package (US)

a packet (UK)/
a bag (US)

a box/packet

a bottle

a jar

a pack (UK)/ a packet (US)

a pot

a piece of fish

In UK English, the word packet is used for many different types of bag or plastic box that food is sold in.
In US English the word used here is package.

Exercise 1

Match the shopping lists (1–4) with the people who wrote them (a–d).

1 d 1 large bag of potato chips
2 cartons of juice
bread
1 piece of cheese
1 package of cookies

2 — 1 bottle of wine
5 pieces of fish
1 package of rice
1 large pot of cream
2 chocolate bars

3 — 2 bars of chocolate
1 packet of butter
eggs

4 — 1 carton of milk
1 box of cereal
1 jar of jam
bread
1 packet of butter

- a Jack is going to cook dinner for four of his friends.
b Michael wants to make a chocolate cake.

- c Eva needs to buy some things for breakfast.
d Stella needs to prepare a picnic for herself and some friends.

Exercise 2

Use the words from the box to complete the shopping list.

jam yoghurt milk soap tomatoes chocolates

1 box of chocolates

3 can of _____

5 bar of _____

2 jar of _____

4 2 cartons of _____

6 2 pots of _____