

143. They were advised that it would be prudent to heavily invest in start-ups.

- A. advised B. prudent C. heavily D. start-ups

144. The head of the department paid a compliment on his weekly report, and then preceded to ask him to read aloud.

- A. head B. compliment
C. preceded D. aloud

145. It was required that all potential candidates be presentable at the interview no later than 9 o'clock.

- A. required B. potential
C. presentable D. later

146. Your failure in the university entrance examination doesn't necessarily conclude the possibility of your success in the future.

- A. failure B. necessarily
C. conclude D. possibility

147. The woman soon abandoned all pretension that she was fascinated by his collection of modern sculpture.

- A. abandoned B. pretension
C. fascinated D. modern sculpture

148. Some voiced their complaints that postgraduate students had received preferable treatment.

- A. voiced B. complaints
C. postgraduate D. preferable

149. They exchanged a questionable glance when she recounted what had happened during her trip to Bangkok.

- A. exchanged B. questionable
C. glance D. recounted

150. Working as a waitress at a take-away restaurant, she earns a respectful salary.

- A. waitress B. take-away C. earns D. respectful