

INDIVIDUAL ASSIGNMENT · WORK AT YOUR OWN PACE · ≈30 MIN

Your audio journey through the Spanish alphabet

Listen, match, and practice the Spanish sounds that don't exist in English.
Audio is generated using your browser's voice — use headphones if you can, and turn up the volume before you start.

Turn on audio and start

0 of 5 stops completed

1

Listen to the sound stamps

⌚ 6 min

Tap each stamp to hear an example and discover how that letter combination sounds in Spanish.

ch

mucho

Listen

ge · gi · j

Gerardo, Jiménez

Listen

h hola

Listen

gu · ga · go

gusto

Listen

ll

me llamo

Listen

ñ

señor

Listen

r (between vowels)

profesora

Listen

r initial · rr

Ramón, Monterrey

Listen

v

nos vemos

Listen

2

Match the sound

⌚ 6 min

Tap an example on the left, then its sound description on the right. Correct matches turn green.

EXAMPLE

mucho

Gerardo, Jiménez

hola

gusto

me llamo

señor

profesora

Ramón, Monterrey

nos vemos

HOW DOES IT SOUND?

Like y in English yes or the li sound in million

Like Spanish b

Like "ch" in English cheese

Like the g in English garden

A trilled sound, several Spanish r's in a row

Similar to tt of butter pronounced very quickly

Similar to the ny sound in canyon

Never pronounced

Similar to a "strong" English h

0 of 9 matched

3

Dictation of Hispanic place names

⌚ 8 min

Listen to the place name and type what you hear. Then check your answer and see how it's spelled out in Spanish.

Listen

Check

Listen

Check

Listen

Check

Listen

Check

Listen

Check

Listen

Check

4

Spell your name

⌚ 4 min

Use the alphabet chart below to spell your name, one letter at a time, just like you would when introducing yourself in Spanish.

Write your name here

5

Cognate hunt

⌚ 5 min

Tap the words you think are cognates (similar in Spanish and English). Then check your answers.

Check my cognates