

English Literature Worksheet (B2 Level)

Name: _____

Grade: _____

Date: _____

Topic: Introduction to Literature

Part I – Matching (5 points)

Instructions: Match each literary term with its correct definition. Write the correct letter.

Literary Term	Definition
---------------	------------

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 1. Protagonist | _____ A. The sequence of events that develops the story. |
| 2. Conflict | _____ B. The central message or underlying idea of a literary work. |
| 3. Theme | _____ C. The main character in a story. |
| 4. Plot | _____ D. The struggle between opposing forces in a story. |
| 5. Setting | _____ E. The time and place in which the story occurs. |

Part II – Complete the Sentences (5 points)

Instructions: Complete each sentence using the correct word from the box. You may use each word only once.

Word Bank:

symbolism – narrator – climax – genre – antagonist

1. The _____ is the character or force that opposes the protagonist.
2. The _____ is the person or voice that tells the story.
3. The _____ is the most exciting or intense moment of the plot.
4. Mystery, science fiction, and drama are examples of a _____.
5. _____ is the use of objects, characters, or events to represent deeper meanings.

Part III – Multiple Choice (5 points)

Instructions: Choose the best answer.

1. Which literary element refers to the lesson or central idea that readers can learn from a story?

Plot

Theme

Setting

Genre

2. In literature, an antagonist is...

the main character.

the person who tells the story.

the character who creates conflict for the protagonist.

the author of the story.

3. Which part of a story usually contains the highest level of tension?

Exposition

Rising Action

Climax

Resolution

4. What is the main purpose of symbolism in literature?

To describe the setting.

To organize the plot.

To represent ideas beyond the literal meaning.

To identify the narrator.

5. Which sentence best describes the setting of a story?

It explains the moral of the story.

It introduces the author's opinion.

It identifies where and when the events take place.

It describes the personality of the protagonist.