Presenter: Listen and look. There is one example. Kim is telling Mr Day about her family and what they bought today. What did each person bought?

Man: Hi, Kim. How are you?

Girl: I'm fine, thanks! I went to the today.

Man: Who did you go with?

Girl: With all my family! My bought a for her bed. It's purple.

Presenter: Can you see the letter 'D'? Now you listen and write a letter in each box.

Man: What shop did you go to?

Girl: First we went to the book shop. I couldn't buy a book because I didn't have any money.

Man: Oh dear!

Girl: But my bought a really exciting I want to read it! It's about a time machine.

Girl: After that, we went to the Man: To buy some food ?

Girl: Yes, and we bought some other things too. My bought a new!

Man: Oh – that isn't very interesting!

Man: What about your

Girl: Oh, we went to the toy shop. She had some money and she wanted to buy a toy.

Man: What did she buy?

Girl: She looked at lots of toys, then she bought a model It was the best toy in the shop!

Girl: My was with us, too.

Man: What did he buy?

Girl: He bought a for his living room.

Man: A big one?

Girl: No, he bought the smallest one in the shop! But it will grow bigger. It's got red

Man: How about your

Girl: Oh yes, she was there too. She likes shopping! She bought a for me.

Man: Was it for your

Girl: Yes. I put it next to my bed. I like reading when I'm in bed. My mum always tells me to go to sleep!
