

Questions

1. Good manners should be _____ (cultivate) from early childhood.
2. A person who is well-mannered is usually _____ (respect) by others in society.
3. Polite expressions such as "Thank you" and "Excuse me" _____ (use) frequently in daily communication.
4. If children are taught good behavior at home, they _____ (grow) up to be responsible citizens.
5. In Myanmar culture, respecting elders _____ (consider) an essential virtue.
6. Bad manners can easily _____ (avoid) if we are mindful of our actions.
7. Proper social etiquette _____ (teach) in schools to help students interact smoothly.
8. If you show respect to others, you _____ (receive) respect in return.
9. Certain customs _____ (practice) differently in different cultures.
10. A friendly smile _____ (welcome) everywhere in the world.