New sports

JOE

I've started doing a climbing course at weekends. I heard about it from my cousin: he's a really sporty person and he loves climbing. I had my first lesson yesterday and it was great. The course is every Tuesday and Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 p.m. and I'm really enjoying it. We climb on a special wall in the sports centre, but the instructor says that in the summer he'll take us to a park near here where there are some very high rocks.

KELLY

My new sport is really a very old one. I'm doing a yoga course after school twice a week and, after four lessons, I'm already feeling better. We've got important exams this year and I'm feeling a bit anxious, but yoga helps me to relax. My English teacher told me about the lessons and my best friend is doing it with me. It's more difficult than I expected, and I'm discovering lots of new muscles, but I quite like it.

SARAH

My sister, Annie, took me with her to her weekly horse-riding class last week and I think I'm going to start lessons. I'm a bit scared of horses really, but Annie says they're fine. I really need to do a sport because I'm not very fit at the moment. I was quite ill recently and I had to spend a lot of time in bed so I want to start doing something active again. I hope I'll like it!

Part 3

Questions 14-18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

NO ORDINARY PET

Jimmy is a very special dog. He lives with Sarah and Kevin Ashby and their parents in Cornwall. However, it is surprising that Jimmy is still living in Cornwall after he spent a year having an adventure!

It all started when the family went on holiday. They travelled five hundred miles to Scotland by car from Cornwall with their dog sitting in the back seat with the children. They all had a wonderful time. They walked up mountains and Jimmy loved jumping into the lakes, or 'lochs' as they are called in Scotland. The whole family did everything together.

On the last day, the Ashby family packed their suitcases to go home. When they finished, Jimmy wasn't there. The whole family spent hours trying to find him, but they couldn't. At last, it was time to go home. The children were very upset and said they didn't want to leave without Jimmy. The family drove back to Cornwall without their pet. They thought he was lost forever.

For a year, the family was very sad. They hoped someone would find Jimmy. They even thought about getting a new dog, but they knew that no dog would be as good as Jimmy.

A year later Sarah heard a strange noise outside the door of their house. When she opened it she found Jimmy standing there. The whole family cried because everyone was so happy that Jimmy was home. To this day, no one knows what Jimmy did during that year away!

14. Jimmy the dog

- A. has lived in Cornwall for a year.
- B. had a very bad adventure more than one year ago.
- C. arrived in Cornwall one year ago.

15. The Ashby family

- A. visited Scotland on holiday.
- B. lived in Scotland.
- C. found Jimmy in Scotland.

16. When Jimmy got lost

- A. they searched for him for a long time.
- B. they had a wonderful time.
- C. they decided to stay in Scotland.

17. For a year, the Ashby family

- A. never saw their dog.
- B. searched for their dog in Cornwall.
- C. looked for another dog.

18. When Jimmy arrived home a year later

- A. they weren't surprised.
- B. they were very happy.
- C. they didn't recognise him.
