UOE - FCE READING PRACTICE PART 1 (8 questions)

For questions 1-8, read the text below and decide which answer best fits each gap.

What our homes say about us

A home is more than a building. It's a place which both influences our identity and represents it. As children, our environment makes us who we are, or at (1)_____ contributes to it. For example, if we grow up in a crowded home, the thought of moving to a quiet home alone might never (2) _____ to us. Instead, we may prefer to live in a house full of people for the (3) _____ of our lives.

As adults, every object that (4) _____ to us tells a story about who we are and where we came from. In (5) _____, how we present those objects in our homes says something about how we want others to see us. If we identify ourselves with being creative, for example, we might put certain art work on (6) _____ for others to see. Or, if we believe that it's more important for a home to be relaxing than fashionable, our home might (7) _____ of warm colours and comfortable furniture, in (8) _____ to stylish, modern but perhaps more uncomfortable pieces.
