

[BÀI 2]

LISTENING

PART 3 – GAP FILL

Instructions: Listen and complete the notes with ONE WORD OR A NUMBER.

Word Bank

1975 • age • army • attic • collection • family •
guide • heart • lawyer • lobby • paintings • servants • staircase • tragedies • wooden

Man: Good morning everyone and welcome to Stonebridge House.

My name is David, and I'm your tour (1) _____.

This morning I'm going to show you around this wonderful 19th-century house which was the home of the Reynold

(2) _____ for more than 150 years, until (3) _____, when it became a national museum.

We are now standing in the main (4) _____ of the house, where you can see the magnificent (5) _____ staircase that leads up to the bedrooms.

The house (6) _____ used to sleep in the (7) _____, but they would have used a different staircase to this one.

Now, if we go through to the dining room, you will be able to see a fine (8) _____ of (9) _____.

George Reynold was a big fan of traditional art as we can see here today.

George came from a military family. Surprisingly, however, he became a (10) _____ even though his father had wanted him to be an officer in the (11) _____.

His younger brother also rebelled and became a teacher.

Now the Reynold family is famous for many things, but probably most of all for the many family (12) _____.

The family has had more than its fair share of early deaths.

George's son Michael died from cancer, his wife died while giving birth to their daughter Emily and George's brother had a fatal horse riding accident.

George himself always suffered from a weak (13) _____, and he died of a heart attack at the (14) _____ of 52.

(15) _____.

