1. Find a specific region/city on the website provided and identify a famous signature cooking style. What traditional cooking style (i.e. simmering, roasting) will you adopt in your kitchen? What non-traditional ingredient will you apply it to?

2. Find two raw ingredients on the website that are important to the specific region/city and how you will feature them on your fusion menu.

3. Explore the food culture of your assigned region. What role does food play in bringing people together or expressing cultural traditions/rituals?

How will you incorporate one of these cultural elements into the experience of your fusion restaurant?

4. Choose 2 ingredients or dishes from your research that represent the culture you explored. How could you combine or adapt them with an ingredient, flavor or cooking style from another culture to create an innovative fusion dish?
