

Name: _____

Date: _____

Unit 3 Review: Relative Clauses

Part 1: Defining Relative Clauses

Join the two sentences to make one defining relative clause. Use who, which, that, whose, where, or when. Do not use commas.

1. That is the boy. He broke the window.

2. Here is the book. You were looking for it.

3. I know a girl. Her mother is a famous actor.

4. This is the restaurant. We ate pizza there.

5. Do you remember the day? We met then.

6. The car is parked outside. It belongs to my uncle.

7. I do not like people. They are always complaining.

8. Show me the phone. You bought it yesterday.

9. He is the teacher. His classes are the best.

10. We visited the town. My grandfather was born there.

Part 2: Non-Defining Relative Clauses

Join the two sentences to make one non-defining relative clause. Use who, which, whose, where, or when. Remember to add commas where necessary!

11. My brother lives in London. He is an engineer.

12. The Eiffel Tower is in Paris. It was built in 1889.

13. Mr Smith is retiring next month. His son works with me.

14. Edinburgh is a beautiful city. I went to university there.

15. Next summer I am visiting Italy. It is famous for its food.

16. My grandmother is 85 years old. She loves gardening.

17. The new library opens on Monday. It has a great café.

18. John's car broke down yesterday. It is a blue Ford.

19. Our house needs a new roof. It was built fifty years ago.

20. Sarah is moving to Madrid. Her husband is Spanish.

Answers

1. That is the boy who/that broke the window.
2. Here is the book which/that you were looking for.
3. I know a girl whose mother is a famous actor.
4. This is the restaurant where we ate pizza.
5. Do you remember the day when we met?
6. The car which/that is parked outside belongs to my uncle.
7. I do not like people who/that are always complaining.
8. Show me the phone which/that you bought yesterday.
9. He is the teacher whose classes are the best.
10. We visited the town where my grandfather was born.
11. My brother, who is an engineer, lives in London.
12. The Eiffel Tower, which was built in 1889, is in Paris.
13. Mr Smith, whose son works with me, is retiring next month.
14. Edinburgh, where I went to university, is a beautiful city.
15. Next summer I am visiting Italy, which is famous for its food.
16. My grandmother, who loves gardening, is 85 years old.
17. The new library, which has a great café, opens on Monday.
18. John's car, which is a blue Ford, broke down yesterday.
19. Our house, which was built fifty years ago, needs a new roof.
20. Sarah, whose husband is Spanish, is moving to Madrid.