

De la Salle

WORKSHOP

L-GEP-49

Vigente desde
15/01/2020

TEACHER	July Marcela Sánchez González
TERM	1st	GRADE	6th	SUBJECT	English	DATE
STUDENT					GROUP		No
TERM LEARNING OUTCOME
Produces oral and written creations orientated towards different knowledge areas.

Mythologies around the world
Grammar core: PASSIVE VOICE
Content core: Myths

Part one: vocabulary
Learning strategy: Matching

Read the items on your left, and make the best matches with the definitions on your right:

1. Pantheon	A. ( ) a traditional story serving to explain a world view.
2. Trojan War	B. ( ) a female deity
3. Myth	C. ( ) the place of the dead
4. goddess	D. ( ) a temple to all the gods
5. Odyssey	E. ( ) a Greek epic poem (attributed to Homer) describing the journey of a hero after the fall of Troy.
6. Minotaur	F. ( ) take someone away to another place by the force.
7. Underworld	G. ( ) any instrument used in fighting or hunting
8. kidnap	H. ( ) a great war fought between Greece and Troy.
9. weapon	I. ( ) the god of the sea and earthquakes in ancient mythology.
10. Poseidon	J. ( ) a mythical monster with the head of a bull and the body of a man

Part two: Reading and writing

Rewrite the sentences in bold into their proper passive voice forms

The Heroic Labors of Hercules

The Nemean Lion.

First, Apollo sent Hercules to the hills of Nemea to kill a lion that was terrorizing the people of the region. Hercules trapped the lion in its cave and strangled it. For the rest of his life, he wore the animal's pelt as a cloak.

WORKSHOP

L-GEP-49
Vigente desde
15/01/2020

PASSIVE

PASSIVE

The Lernaean Hydra

Second, Hercules traveled to the city of Lerna to slay the nine-headed Hydra—a poisonous, snake-like creature who lived underwater, guarding the entrance to the Underworld. Hercules had the help of his nephew Iolaus. He cut off each of the monster's heads while Iolaus burned each wound with a torch.

PASSIVE

The Erymanthean Boar

Fourth, Hercules used a giant net to catch the terrifying boar of Mount Erymanthus.

PASSIVE

PICTIONARY

CLOAK

BOAR

PELT

Resources retrieved from
<https://www.history.com/topics/ancient-history/hercules>
www.vocabulary.com