

Ex 1: Match words 1-7 with definitions a-g

1. Independent	a, Causing laughter or amusement; entertaining
2. Funny	b, Not relying on others; able to do things on your own
3. drawback	c, The habit of giving or sharing with others, especially in a kind or unselfish way
4. talkative	d, A disadvantage or problem that makes something less good
5. generosity	e, Someone who talks a lot; chatty

<chen Audio> Ex 2: Listen and fill the blanks

I love cats because they are 1. _____. They help us relax by 2. _____. You can play with them too. Making them chase a piece of string or a beam of light is very 3. _____, indeed. But a drawback of having a cat is that they can be 4. _____. My cat always meows when she wants to eat. And she tries to make us give her our food when we are eating, especially when we are having fish for dinner. On the other hand, 5. _____ has its advantages. For example, they catch 6. _____ and other small animals. For cats, catching and giving small animals to their owners is a sign of 7. _____. Sometimes my cat brings animals who are not dead into the house. I really don't like it when she does that.