

★ Read the story. Choose a word from the next page. Write the correct word next to numbers 1–5. There is one example.

It was a hot summer day, and Peter and Sally were walking home from school. Sally was miserable. She was very worried about her math test the next day. “I enjoy (1)_____ math and I always do my homework,” said Sally. “But I don’t get good grades.”

“(2)_____, Sally,” said Peter. “Don’t be sad. You’re better at science than me. You always get a good grade for your science homework.” Sally started to feel more cheerful. “Keep trying. Don’t (3)_____. You’re a good student,” continued Peter. “Things always get better.”

“You’re right,” said Sally. “Thanks, Peter. I feel a lot (4)_____ now.” They were passing a grocery store that (5)_____ ice cream. “Come on,” said Sally. “Let me buy you a delicious chocolate ice cream!”

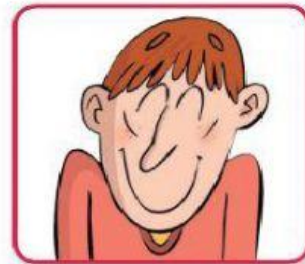

Example

miserable

look for happier

give up

sold

playing studying

noisy

(6) Now choose the best name for the story. Mark (✓) one box.

Being positive can make you happy

☐

My favorite ice cream

☐

Science isn't as difficult as math

☐

✦ Read the text. Choose the right words and write them on the lines.

Example Journalists are people who write stories and articles for newspapers.

7 People usually become journalists because they enjoy _____ and are interested in current events.

8 _____ journalists write about one topic. For example, sports

9 journalists write about sports, _____ news journalists write about news. Today, the internet has changed the way we read news. All newspapers

10 have their own websites now, and a lot of people _____ reading

11 newspapers and magazines online. If you want to _____ news about an event that interests you, it's usually easy to find an article online.

Example	what	(who)	than
7	write	to write	writing
8	Any	Much	Many
9	because	and	so
10	prefer	need	want
11	get out	hang out	find out