JAKE: Hello, Junior Cycle camp, Jake speaking.

WOMAN: Hi. I'm calling for some information about the cycle camp – I'm thinking of sending my son.

JAKE: Great. Well, it's held every weekday morning over the summer vacation and we focus on basic cycling skills and safety. We have eight levels for children from three years upwards. How old's your son?

WOMAN: Charlie? He's seven. He can ride a bike, but he needs a (1) _____ before he's safe to go on the road.

JAKE: He'd probably be best in Level 5. They (2) _____ practising on the site here, and we aim to get them riding on the road, but first they're taken to ride in the park, away from the traffic.

WOMAN: Right. And can you tell me a bit about the instructors?

JAKE: Well, all our staff wear different coloured shirts. So, we have three supervisors, and they have red shirts. They (3) _____ the instructors, and they also (4) _____ me if I'm not around. Then the instructors themselves are in blue shirts, and one of these (5) _____ each class.

WOMAN: OK.

JAKE: In order to (6) _____, all our instructors (7) _____ a reference from someone who's seen them (8) _____ – like if they've worked as a babysitter, for example. Then they have to (9) _____, including how to do lesson plans, and generally care for the (10) _____ of the kids in their class. They do a great job, I have to say.

WOMAN: Right. And tell me a bit about the classes. What size will Charlie's class be?

JAKE: We have a (11) _____ of eight children in each class, so their instructor really (12) _____ well. They're out riding most of the time but they have (13) _____ too, where their instructor might (14) _____ that's got something to do with cycling, or get them to (15) _____. It's a lot of fun.

WOMAN: It must be. Now, what happens if there's rain? Do the classes still run?

JAKE: Oh yes. We (16) _____ – we just (17) _____ our waterproofs and (18) _____.

WOMAN: And can you tell me anything else about the instructors?

JAKE: Yes. They (19) _____ and generally care for the children in their class.

WOMAN: Great. That sounds good.

JAKE: Yes, we want every child to (20) _____ during the camp.
