

Big Changes

Grammar

Name: _____

Class: _____

Date: _____

You've got this!

I can identify and use: Simple Present, Present Progressive, Simple Past, and Present Perfect.

1 Choose the correct answer.

- 1 Which tense is used for facts, permanent situations, or habits and routines?

A Present Progressive

B Simple Present

C Simple Past

D Present Perfect

- 2 Choose the correct verb form to complete the sentence:
The water _____. Please turn it off.

A boils

B boiled

C is boiling

D has boiled

- 3 Complete the sentence: John lives in Quebec, but he _____ in France this year.

A studies

B is studying

C studied

D has studied

- 4 What is the correct form of the verb for this sentence?
Currently, the number of immigrants in our country _____.

A increase

B increases

C is increasing

D increased

2 Write True or False.

- The Present Progressive tense is used for actions and situations that are happening now or are in progress.
- The Simple Past is used to talk about events that began in the past and continue into the present.
- In the sentence "The moon goes around Earth," the verb is in the Simple Present tense because it is a fact.
- The sentence "The Russians launched the first artificial satellite" uses the Present Perfect tense.

3 Match column A to column B.

Column A (Tenses)

- Simple Present
- Present Progressive
- Simple Past
- Present Perfect
- Temporary Situation

Column B (Uses)

- Used for facts, permanent situations, or habits
- Used for actions happening now or in progress
- Used for events that began and ended in the past
- Used for events that began in the past and continue to the present
- Example: He is studying in France this year

4 Answer the following questions.

- (He _____ with his uncle until he can find his own place. (live _____)
- (The scientists _____ the cause of the problem. (not/understand _____)

Keep going, you're making progress! ♥

LIVEWORKSHEETS