Jack Sheridan

Jack Sheridan has always dreamt of being an explorer. His hero is Edmund Hillary, who, with his guide Tenzing Norgay, was the first to get to the top of Mount Everest. Jack decided to take a year out before going to university. He wanted to travel, but wasn't sure where to go. He has just succeeded in getting a place on an exciting expedition in Ladakh in the Indian Himalayas. He will camp and do long walks in the low hills, then climb high into the mountains to do scientific research.

'The leader sent me a video that he had recorded on a similar expedition last year. It looks amazing,' said Jack. He is particularly interested in the range of research you can do and is looking forward to studying the stars, the weather and the geography of this beautiful mountainous region. He thinks the local culture will also be fascinating.

'This sort of journey, into remote and challenging country, seems like a great way to test yourself. You have to plan, be resourceful and work hard in a team. I'm going to film myself while I'm there. It's important to enjoy the moment, but I also want to play it back to remember exactly what it felt like to go on the biggest adventure of my life.'
