RELATIVE PRONOUNS

Relative Pronouns, like other pronouns, refer to somebody or something that has already been mentioned. At the some time, they join clauses together—relative clauses.

	People	Things
Subject	Who = that	That = which
Object	whom	That = which
Possession	whose	whose

B) Complete the sentences with the correct relative pronoun:

The woman _____ opened the door to us was a nice person.
The girl _____ mother lives next door to us works in a hospital.
My husband, _____ enjoys his job a lot, is a doctor.
The house _____ is round the corner is falling down.
Mark, _____ sister works with me, is an intelligent person.

A) Look at the example and complete the sentences. with relative pronouns:

The catcher is the man
who sells meat
(sell meat)

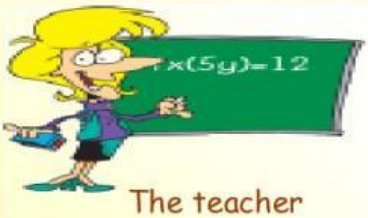

A library is a place
_____
(we /can/read books)

The room
_____
(I/study/be/my bedroom)

A librarian is a person
_____
(work in a library)

The teacher
_____
(students/get/good marks/be/very proud)

The theatre play
_____
(we/see yesterday/be/ very funny)

The actor
_____
(play/in it/ be / very good)

A fireman is a man
_____
(extinguish/fire/and/help)

The palace
_____
(we / visit/last month / burn)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

RELATIVE PRONOUNS

Relative Pronouns, like other pronouns, refer to somebody or something that has already been mentioned. At the some time, they join clauses together—relative clauses.

	People	Things
Subject	Who = that	That = which
Object	whom	That = which
Possession	whose	whose

B) Complete the sentences with the correct relative pronoun:

The woman _____ opened the door to us was a nice person.
The girl _____ mother lives next door to us works in a hospital.
My husband, _____ enjoys his job a lot, is a doctor.
The house _____ is round the corner is falling down.
Mark, _____ sister works with me, is an intelligent person.

A) Look at the example and complete the sentences. with relative pronouns:

The catcher is the man
who sells meat
(sell meat)

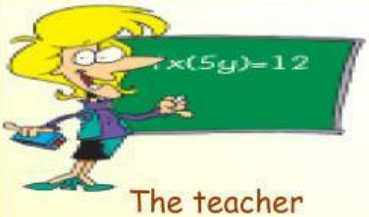

A library is a place
_____
(we /can/read books)

The room
_____
(I/study/be/my bedroom)

A librarian is a person
_____
(work in a library)

The teacher
_____
(students/get/good marks/be/very proud)

The theatre play
_____
(we/see yesterday/be/ very funny)

The actor
_____
(play/in it/ be / very good)

A fireman is a man
_____
(extinguish/fire/and/help)

The palace
_____
(we / visit/last month / burn)

LIVEWORKSHEETS