A BUSY MORNING AT SCHOOL

It is 10:00 a.m. at Juan Máximo Villar School. The students are having a busy morning. In the English classroom, the teacher is explaining a new activity. Some students are speaking and answering questions. Maria is raising her hands because she wants to participate. Carlos is using a laptop to find information, and Ana is using a dictionary to check new words.

At the same time, Pedro is taking notes in his notebook. His classmates are solving exercises and doing homework. Two students are sharing ideas about their project. The teacher is asking questions, and the students are answering them.

Outside the classroom, some students are doing different activities. Luis is drawing a picture, and Sofia is painting a poster. A group of students is cleaning the school garden. They are washing the tables and smiling because they are working together.

During the physical education class, some students are running, jumping, riding bicycles, and swimming. The teacher is watching them carefully. Another group is taking photos of the activities for the school magazine.

Everyone is participating and learning in different ways. The school is a busy place today!
