Reading Comprehension

A Busy Day at Central Park

Today is Sunday, and Central Park is full of people. Many men and women are enjoying the weather.

Under a tree, a woman named Mrs. Smith is sitting with her baby, Leo. The baby's teddy bear falls on the grass, but a girl named Emma picks it up and hands it back. "Is this yours?" Emma asks. Mrs. Smith smiles and says, "Yes, thank you!"

Nearby, two children, Sophia and her brother Lucas, are playing. The girl's doll is sitting on the bench, and Lucas is flying a green kite. Another boy named Jack runs looking for a ball. Jack sees a ball on the grass near Tom and asks, "Is that ball yours, Tom?" Tom answers, "No, it isn't mine.

It belongs to those boys over there, Sam, Louis and Ben. It is theirs!" Everyone is having a wonderful time at the park!
