

Name: _____

Date: _____

Past Participle Quiz

Activity 1

Circle the past participle in each sentence and determine whether it is a verb or an adjective. Explain the reason briefly.

1. Have you phoned a technician yet?

Reason:

2. My cousin Lyla really loves frozen yogurt.

Reason:

3. The cops found some destroyed papers in his apartment.

Reason:

4. I have written a letter for her. I can't wait to hear her response.

Reason:

5. My little brother tried to fix his broken toy.

Reason:

Activity 2

Make two sentences using a past participle given. One sentence with the past participle as a verb and the other sentence as an adjective.

1 Past Participle: Baked

Sentence 1: _____

Sentence 2: _____

2 Past participle: Shattered

Sentence 1: _____

Sentence 2: _____

3 Past participle: Paid

Sentence 1: _____

Sentence 2: _____

4 Past Participle: Burned

Sentence 1: _____

Sentence 2: _____

5 Past participle: Written

Sentence 1: _____

Sentence 2: _____

Dialogue

Ella : Are you going to watch Kim Go Eun's latest movie?

Laras : Of course! I am so excited about it!

Ella : With whom are you going?

Laras : My brother Albert. My mom will not be going.

Ella : Albert! It's been a long time since the last time I met him. How is he doing?

Laras : He is doing just fine. He keeps wearing the same broken hair-band. It is embarrassing.

Ella : Is it the same old colored hair-band he has always worn all this time?

Laras : It is. Oh, and he also becomes the most wanted basketball player at school. At least there is something that I can be proud of about him, haha.

Ella : That's cool! Now what about you? Are you still the spoiled daughter of your family?

Laras : Of course! That's my privilege for being the youngest. Don't get jealous, okay?

Ella : Are you kidding? Haha. Well, then. Enjoy your time.

Laras : Thanks, you too!

