EXAMPLE

Woman: Right, we're home from the supermarket now. Can you help me put all these shopping things in the right places?
Boy: Yes, of course, Mum. What shall I do first?
Woman: Well, let's start with the butter. Where do you think that should go?
Boy: Um, in the fridge?
Woman: Yes, that's right. We need to keep it in a low temperature, on the middle shelf.

- 1 Woman: Now, where shall we put this soap?
Boy: Shall I take it upstairs to the _____ shelf?
Woman: No, don't put it there. There's still half a bar of soap in the bathroom already, so we don't need more there yet.
Boy: Oh, I see. So where then?
Woman: Put it in the _____ with the other _____.
There's space on the _____ shelf.
- 2 Boy: How about this jar of honey, Mum? It goes in the kitchen cupboard with the jam, doesn't it?
Woman: No, not this time. Put it in _____ for me, please.
Boy: Why?
Woman: We will bring it to _____ later. She asked me to buy it for her because the shop in her village doesn't sell this kind of honey.
Boy: Oh, I understand now.
- 3 Woman: Now, can you take this brush somewhere for me? It's in this bag here.
Boy: Is it for cleaning the _____? I can use it after lunch.
Woman: No, it's not a cleaning brush at all. Look at it carefully and you'll see.
Boy: Oh, it's a _____! I thought it was something different.
Woman: That's right. Take it upstairs to your _____.
I bought it for her because her old one is broken and doesn't work well any more.
- 4 Boy: Shall I put these _____ on the shelf with the other medicine?
Woman: No, not today. Put them on the _____.
Boy: That's strange. We usually keep them _____.
Woman: I know, but Dad cut his finger yesterday afternoon when he was cooking dinner. He needs them there on the table so he can change the bandage quickly every morning.
Boy: Oh, OK.
- 5 Woman: Last thing – this bin.
Boy: Should I put it in the kitchen next to the oven?
Woman: No, it's not for inside the house. Bring it _____.
Boy: Outside? Where?
Woman: Put it in the _____ near the _____.
We need it for old leaves and grass.

Good luck!
